

Lewiston Garden Club

Organized 1927 ♦ Federated 1946 ♦ Membership 50

Meetings

4th Monday of each month
(Unless otherwise noted)
10:30 am Lewiston Library
305 South 8th Street
Lewiston, NY

Upcoming Events

The Annual Perennial Sale

May 19, 2018
Red Brick School, N. 4th St., Lewiston
10:00 am to 1:00 pm

Lewiston Garden Fest

June 16 - 17, 2018
Center Street, Lewiston
10:00 am to 5:00 pm
Website: www.lewistongardenfest.com

This Garden Fest includes over 60 vendors selling garden related items along Center Street in the Village of Lewiston. Garden experts provide demonstrations in the Community Tent on both days. A master gardener will be available to test soil. Horticulture societies will be on hand to answer questions. A container garden contest will be held and the public can vote on their favorite. Also, several homeowners in the area will open their beautiful gardens to the public.

Monthly Meetings & Events

2018-19

May 19

Perennial Plant Sale

10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. in the gym of the Red Brick School and Village Offices, No. Fourth & Onondaga St., Lewiston

Perennials and other garden related items from Club members will be sold to the public.

May 21

Spring Cleanup and Planting

Meet at 9:00 a.m. at Hennepin Park, So. Fourth & Center Streets to get assignments for planting and cleanup.

Members will be cleaning up and planting the gardens at the Lewiston Museum, Hennepin Park and Lewiston Public Library rain or shine. Lunch will follow at Lewiston Public Library Community Room.

June 4

Club Picnic

Meet at 12:00 noon at Barbara Carter's Cottage, Lake Road, Youngstown, NY. Bring a dish to pass, a chair, sunblock and your appetite.

June 16-17

13th Annual GardenFest

10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. each day along Center St., Lewiston Vendors, landscaping ideas, open gardens. Proceeds fund the many civic Lewiston Garden Club projects.

www.lewistongardenfest.com

September 24 Show and Tell

10:00 a.m. Lewiston Public Library Community Room

Two of the marvelous benefits of belonging to a garden club are the social interaction and the education acquired from experienced gardeners. So let's combine both. Bring your favorite gardening tool and or your favorite gardening hint. Share with us why they are your favorites and a little about yourself.

October 22

Drying Natural Flowers

6:00 p.m. St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Ridge St., Lewiston

This meeting is a pot-luck supper followed by a business meeting and program. Martha Johnson of Ancestral Acres will speak on Drying Natural Flowers. She is the owner of a drying barn in Lockport where she uses her own homegrown natural flowers to create dried flower designs for the home.

November 12 Annual Fluffing of the Wreaths

10:30 a.m. Red Brick School, North Fourth & Onondaga Streets, Lewiston

Wreaths that will decorate Center Street in the Village during the holiday season will be fluffed up and decorated with bows. Lunch and a short meeting will follow.

Members interested in helping make a joyous holiday for a family in need will choose from the families provided by Community Missions. We will also make wreath for the families to accompany the gift baskets.

November 17 Wreath and Garland Hanging

9:00 a.m. Meet at Hennepin Park, Center St., Lewiston
Volunteers are greatly appreciated. Remember to dress to suit the weather.

December 11 Luncheon

Tuesday, 12 noon. Note day and time change

Youngstown Yacht Club, 491 Water Street, Youngstown, NY

Four Community Mission families will be "adopted" by our club. If you are participating in the donation of gift baskets, please bring your donations to our luncheon. Baskets for each family will be assembled for delivery.

2019

January 21 Ornamental Grasses

10:30 a.m. Lewiston Public Library Community Room

Colleen Gaskill, CNLP, a Landscape Design Specialist from Adams Nursery will present a program on ornamental grasses.

February 25 Spring Garden – Maintenance the Easy Way

10:30 a.m. Lewiston Public Library Community Room

Lyn Chimera, a Master Gardener will present “Spring Garden – Maintenance the Easy Way.” She will present an outline of what can be done to prepare your garden for the growing season; transplanting, dividing, and planting a well as many tips on saving time and money during spring maintenance. Lyn is also an author and the owner and founder of “Lessons From Nature.”

March 25: Installation Luncheon

12:00 noon, Apple Granny Restaurant, 433 Center Street, Lewiston, NY

Members will gather to install our officers for the coming year.

April 22: Spring and Summer Backyard Birds

6:00 p.m. – Please note special time and place

Messiah Lutheran Church, 915 Oneida St, Lewiston.

Danielle Pecoraro, owner of Wild Birds Unlimited, will present a program on “Spring and Summer Backyard Birds.” She will outline the birds we can expect to see and what they will eat.

Club Projects

Maintain the grounds of Hennepin Park

Maintain the grounds of The Lewiston Museum

Offers two college scholarships

Sponsors a Junior Garden Club

Provides plants for Habitat for Humanity

Provides funds for civic beautification projects

Want to Join the Lewiston Garden Club?

Contact: Marianne Gittermann, President at: macduffdog@msn.com